B I O

Born in Bariloche, Argentina in 1994, where she currently resides. She is freelance illustrator and interior designer. Since her childhood she is passionate about drawing and studying design she was able to learn about art and improve her drawing and painting techniques. Then, after graduating and while continuing with postgraduate studies, she began to draw, cars, animals, architecture...

And finally in 2017 Yamila had the opportunity to participate along great argentinian artists in an automotive art exhibition in the classic cars event "1000 Millas Sport" of Argentina, in Hotel Llao Llao of Bariloche.

Now she is combining her passions working with art commissions and doing automotive artpieces, especially graphite, pastels and polychromes pencils drawings.

Also she got the 2nd place on the "Premio Varzi in Arte", an art competition organized by the Moto Club Achille Varzi on the occasion of the 70th anniversary of Varzi's death. As part of admitted artworks, her work was participating in the art exhibition "Mostra Varzi in Arte" at Castello Sforzesco in Galliate, Italy during July and September 2018.

On September 2018 Yamila was part of the "St. Moritz Automobile Week" in Switzerland, exhibiting some of her artworks in the Kempinski Grand Hotel des Bains during the hill climb race Bernina Gran Turismo.
